MORE TO GRADUATE

NOW COMES THE BUSINESS COLLEGE WITH THIRTY-ONE.

AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

June 27th is the Date Fixed for the Stenographers and Bookkeepers to Receive Diplomas.

On Thursday evening, June 27, the Business college will have its commencement exercises for the year. The class of 1912 is made up of thirty-one members and is the largest class ever graduated from the school. Franklin Pierce Jolly, "The Jolly Entertainer from Joliet," will deliver the class address on the subject of "How to Win the Battle of Life." Mr. Jolly has a national reputation, and no doubt will draw a large audience. The admission is to be free, and the exercises will be held at the Christian church, beginning at 8:15. An interesting program is being prepared, notice of which will appear in this paper. Aside from the regular graduation exercises the college will take a forward step, and will confer degrees upon a number of graduates in former years, who have worked as bookkeepers for twelve months or more.

Those who are to graduate this year are as follows: Paul Christianson, Paul Caudle, Ross Duncan, P. B. Fisher, J. M. Hull, Everett Linville, D. E. Manley, Lloyd H. Manring, Darrel Schoonover, Clinton White, Florence Anderson, Mark Basford, Anthony Blatter, Gladys Beedle, Marie Bluel, Carrie Bright, Kathern Merrigan, Beulah McCoppin, Irvil Stafford, Helen Trullinger, Georgia Beedle, Della Briggs, Anna Collins, Henry Hopper, Ruth Hasty, Ada V. Imboden, Ralph Jamison, Claude E. King, Bertha White, Lee G. Yaple and Mary McCall.

Those upon who the degree of Master of Accounts will be conferred are as follows: Bertha Anderson, Hubert R. Conway, Mary Gallagher, Harrison Gibson, Harry Holeman, Charles Lane, Mary LeGrand, David Lundeen, Mary O'Brien, Hugh A. Robertson, Olin Vance. The Maryville Business college is undoubtedly in the front rank of the foremost commercial schools, and its popularity is attested by its constantly increasing patronage. The graduates of the school have always secured positions, and already several members of this class have positions which they will accept immediately, and the others will be placed in a short time.

GIANTS IN FIRST PLACE.

Rounders and Giants Were Victors in Saturday's Double-Header in Normal League.

Standing of the Teams.

	Won.	Lost.	Pr.ct.
Giants	2	0	1.000
Rounders	1	1	.500
Athletics	1	1	.500
Pirates	0	2	.000

By virtue of their victory over the Pirates in the second game of Saturday's double-header the Giants are now occupying first place all to themselves in the Normal base ball league. The winners had things all their own way, as the 9 to 4 score will indicate. Prof. Moore pitched for the Giants and he fooled the opposing hitters all through the game. Snipes and McDougal were on the mound for the losers and both heavers were ineffective.

The first game of the afternoon was a real exhibition of the national game. The Rounders were victors over the Athletics in a well played game which took an extra inning to decide.

The count was 4 to 3. Wilson pitched for the winners and Simmons was the slab artist for the "Connie Macks."

The fans and fanettes are manifesting no little amount of interest in the league and the games are being well attended.

TO STOP A RAILROAD

SIX DIVORCES GRANTED

Matrimonial Bonds Untangled in Circuit Court—Morris Mandamus Case Up Thursday.

Suit was filed Tuesday in Circuit Clerk Rathbun's office by B. R. Martin for Thomas Wright against the Wabash railroad to cancel a deed which was granted the Wabash railroad to the tract of land upon which the station now stands.

The deed was granted by Wright on December 2, 1879, and the articles of the document provided for the maintenance of a station agent and the usual conveniences for shippers. But the citizens of the village complain that the railroad company has not kept up its part of the agreement, thus causing the people of the community, particularly the shippers, great inconvenience.

As Bedison hasn't a sufficient population to come under the jurisdiction of the state railroad and warehouse commissioners, they take this as a means of bringing the railroad to time. Forfeiture of the right to run trains over the track is asked for in the petition.

The court decided against William A. Heller in his mandamus suit against the county court to compel them to grant him a license.

In the cases of the state of Missouri against John Merrill and E. C. Estes, left over from Monday on the parole docket, Merrill's parole was continued and the parole of Estes was continued in the first two cases and the other three charges against him were dismissed.

Murray Lincoln was appointed guardian to Guy and Fay Lincoln, and Ellis G. Cook was appointed guardian to Hazel H. Kivett.

In the cases of George E. Allison vs. Margaret Adams, Grace M. Clymens vs. Abraham Adams, and Rosa M. Scott vs. Nellie E. Kelley a decree was given the plaintiff in each instance.

George Davidson was granted a divorce from Bessie J. Davidson, Georgia C. Beedle was granted a decree from Ralph T. Beedle and Pansie C. Proctor's matrimonial bonds to Harry E. Proctor were broken. Marshall W. Ecker dismissed his suit for divorce against Rosa Ecker.

In the afternoon session three more decrees of divorce were granted—Myrtle M. Duckworth from Charley M. Duckworth, Amy Alice Schepers from Bernard T. Schepers, and Ida Lewis from Robert F. Lewis. In the last named case the plaintiff gets $300 alimony.

The divorce case of John E. Courter against Dora H. Courter was continued to Saturday and $50 temporary alimony was granted. In the Sherman A. Munn vs. Helaina Munn divorce suit the evidence was heard and taken under advice.

Just before adjournment for dinner it was decided by the attorneys in the J. W. Morris mandamus case to bring the case up before the court on Tuesday.

The Custer-Wyckoff Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Custer, 210 South Mulberry street, when their daughter, Miss Georgia, was united in marriage to Mr. Carl E. Wyckoff of Kansas City, the Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church officiating. The double ring ceremony was used. Before the ceremony Miss Eva Duncan sang "All I Ask is Love." As Miss Duncan played the wedding march the bride and groom took their places beneath an arch shaped in smilax, white carnations and pink and white sweet peas and banked with palms and ferns. After the ceremony and congratulations had been extended a three-course luncheon was served. The color scheme in the dining room was white and pink. The large table, where the bridal party was seated, had a large centerpiece of white carnations, pink roses and smilax. Pink and white ribbons extended from the chandelier to the four corners of the table, which was lighted by white candles with pink silk shades. On the small tables, where the guests were seated, were crystal baskets tied with pink and white tulle and filled with pink and white sweet peas. The bride's gown was of baby Irish lace and embroidery, while her long tulle veil was held in place by clusters of orange blossoms. The out-of-town guests were Miss Blanche Wyckoff of Enid, Okla., sister of the groom; Mr. Leo Custer and his bride of Pittsburg, Okla., a brother of the bride, who was married Saturday, June 8; Miss Helen Ward of Perry, Ia., a cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wiley of Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. James Goff of Arkoe. FOR THE MILL TAX

DR. TAYLOR URGES IMPORTANCE OF AMENDMENT TO ALL.

DO AWAY WITH LOBBYING

The Adoption of the Amendment Means an Assured Income for State Educational Institutions.

Editor Democrat-Forum: I desire to place before our people of Northwest Missouri a measure that deserves the support of every good and progressive citizen. It is the mill tax educational amendment, which is as follows:

Proposed amendment to the constitution of Missouri—To be submitted to the legal voters of the state of Missouri for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1912, providing for revenue for the support of public education, by adding to article X of the constitution one new section to be known as section twenty-eight (28), which is in words and figures as follows:

Section 28. A state tax of ten cents on each one hundred dollars valuation shall be annually levied and collected on the assessed value of all property subject by law to taxation in this state. The proceeds of said tax shall be set apart in the state treasury and appropriated by the general assembly for the support and maintenance of public elementary and high schools, state normal schools, Lincoln institute, and the state university; but in no case shall there be appropriated less than twenty-five per cent of said proceeds to be used in aiding public elementary and high schools.

Let me call attention to the fact that at present we have no fixed maintenance for the support of our state educational institutions. At each bi-

Clairvoyant Bernay Is Now Here

Prof. Bernay is the Clairvoyant who located J. W. Graham of St. Joseph, a young man, who had been missing two years. Mrs. Graham, the mother, consulted Mr. Bernay, who while in a clairvoyant condition stated that the man was an enlisted sailor on the Battleship Kearsarge and that he would be found there. Telegraphic inquiry confirmed the prediction.

Mr. Julius Daniel of Joplin is now a wealthy mine owner, but 2 years ago was working in a mine at $3.00 a day in that city. By mere accident he met Mr. Bernay, who pointed out an opportunity to him. Mr. Daniel acted upon the advice with the result that, as he writes in a letter of thanks to Mr. Bernay, "It started me on the road to success and in ten months was worth $18,000.00 to me."

Miss F. D. of St. Joseph consulted with Bernay after circumstances had broken up a dear friendsip between her and a prominent young professional man. In two weeks time through the clairvoyant's advice and help the trouble was settled and the friendship renewed with marriage as a near result.

John Emerson, a prosperous farmer living near Springfield, had buried his money in his backyard, having no faith in banks. He died on April 21, 1910, suddenly without having time to tell the family about this. When no money was found, a son consulted with Mr. Bernay and this resulted in the recovery of $4,200.00 and valuable papers.

Without asking a single question of his caller, Bernay reveals every important event in his client's life even to the meaning of them in full, showing them how to attain the success they desire in business, investments, speculation, love, courtship, marriage, divorce, lost or absent friends, lawsuits, fortunes, money affairs, health, wills, deeds or anything they may be in doubt about and all be assured of the proper advice and help.

Mr. Bernay may be consulted daily (except Sunday) from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Consultations $1.00 and $2.00 Everything strictly confidential.

ennial session of the legislature it is necessary for the representatives of those institutions to go to Jefferson City and institute a lobby to secure the means for the support of the university, the normal schools and the Lincoln institute. Every state that is in the lead among educational lines provides for the fixed maintenance of those institutions. It is not right nor is it helpful to our educational interests to reduce them to the need of seeking their support by means of a semi-political barter at each session of the legislature.

I believe that the people of Northwest Missouri will register themselves largely on the side of progress and vote for this measure. Let me indicate some of its advantages.

First—Assured support of our educational institutions without the need of a humiliating legislatiure lobby.

Second—A fixed amount for public schools that can be used to establish high schools where needed, to strengthen weak high schools, to make a good consolidated rural school wherever feasible, and to provide free tuition in a good high school for every pupil completing the course of study in the country schools.

Third—It will make available from the present general revenue over $1,000,000 that can be used to make good roads, establish farmers' institutes, rural community life centers, and support our eleemosynary institutions.

Fourth—It will raise Missouri from the humiliating position of being thirtieth in the educational rank of the Union while in resources and wealth she is among the first.

The amendment must be pushed. Petitions are being circulated and every voter is urged to sign his name. The signatures of five per cent of the voters in each congressional district must be secured, but let us do honor to Northwest Missouri by sending in a much larger number that shall declare in emphatic tones the spirit of educational progress of this great section of the state. Petitions may be found at the Tribune and Democrat-Forum offices. Some money is needed to carry on the campaign of securing signatures and placing the matter before the people. Help in this direction will be most acceptable. If you want a part in this great forward step in educational progress and are willing to help bear the expense, will you not kindly report the amount that you will pay to Superintendent W. M. Oakerson or myself?

Trusting that every friend of better education and state development will exert himself in behalf of this significant movement, I am,

Very truly,
H. K. TAYLOR.

Little Boy is Better.

Mrs. Mary Renfro returned to her home in Hopkins Monday. She came Saturday to be with her little boy, Ronald, who has been at St. Francis hospital the past ten days receiving treatment to remove the ill effects of a burn he received to his left hand a year ago. Skin was grafted over the back of his hand Saturday morning by Dr. Charles T. Bell. The little boy is getting along nicely. He will remain several days in the care of Dr. Bell at the home of Mrs. W .V. Smith, on East Fourth street, his sister, Miss Elma, being with him.

Will Move to Creston.

C. C. Young, the contractor, will move his family to Creston about the 15th of July. Mr. Young has been in Creston nearly a year, where he has been busily engaged in work, and has only been with his family on Sundays. He is now building the new school house at Lenox and has much other work up in that country to oversee which would keep him away from Maryville all the time.

Miss Harriet Hamilton of Auburn, N. Y., who has been a guest a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Craig, left for her home Monday. Miss Hamilton spent the winter in California and had traveled all through the west on her way to Tarkio, where she visited her cousin, Dr. Curtis Coe, and family, who is Mr. and Mrs. Craig's son-in-law.

Warren L. Jones and family are spending several days in the Quitman country with old friends and relatives, fishing, picnicking and having a good time.

Mrs. George Kivett and son, of Hopkins were in Maryville Monday.

LOW TONES ARE A SEDATIVE

Pitch the Voice Deep When Under Nervous Tension and Self-Control Is Gained.

An excellent sedative for nervous excitement is found in using the voice at its lowest comfortable key. Immediate relief from stuttering is often obtained by dropping the voice from a high pitch to a lower tone. Teachers whose pupils become restless and unruly as they themselves grow tired and nervous will find that a low-pitched, quiet tone will relieve their own nervous tension, and prove wonderfully quieting to their pupils.

This simple expedient is also useful when you are trying to control or prevent weeping. There are times when a person fears to talk lest he break down and cry, yet must answer a question or carry on a conversation. Again, the deep lower tones of the voice, joined to slow, deep breathing, come to the rescue, and self-control is gained.

In any situation where one must struggle for self-possession, the low-pitched voice, with its impression of poise and self-confidence, is a wonderful aid. Even under ordinary circumstances the lower register of the speaking voice is richer and more musical. —Youth's Companion.

CURIOS FOR THE CHILDREN

Among the dim old rooms of the Smithsonian Institution, in Washington, is one very bright and cheery apartment, over the archway of which are the words "Children's Room." Here there are arranged all sorts of natural objects in which boys and girls are interested, such curious things as mineral wool, flexible sandstone, landscape marbles, a model of the Great Mogul, the largest diamond ever cut, and another of the largest lump of gold ever found.

In another case are the strange glove and finger sponges and the Venus flower basket, and over a case of beautiful shells is one of iridescent and brightly hued butterflies.

How creatures hide is illustrated by "walking leaves," the night hawk, crown creepers, "walking stick" and other queer creatures that are scarce to be detected because of their clever adherence to leaves, twigs and other objects of similar coloring.

Canny Grocer.

The canny grocer sized up his customer:

She had ordered six strictly fresh eggs.

He took down the paper bag and, going to the basket, picked them out.

Twisting the top of the bag together he handed it to the woman, who paid him and went away.

The canny grocer smiled. He had given the woman seven eggs when she ordered but six.

He knew that when she reached home and found that she had seven instead of six eggs she would be so delighted with the supposition that she had overreached him that she would entirely disregard the fact that six of the eggs were storage and one was dubious!

For the grocer understood human nature. And he was canny.—Plain Dealer.

Tenth Century Horses.

Money values in the tenth century were very low, according to our ideas, but as the purchasing power of money then equaled from eight to twenty times what it is today, one must not hasten a comparison. In Athelstane's time a horse was worth 120 shillings, an ox 30 pence, a cow 20 pence, a sheep 5 pence, a hog 8 pence, a slave 20 shillings, making a slave worth eight oxen, and these prices, except in times of famine, appear to have changed little under the Norman. In 1156 wheat sold at 18 pence the quarter of eight bushels, and in 1243 it brought only 24 pence, but in 1024 seed wheat sold at 3 shillings a bushel, barley at 2 shillings and oats at 1 shilling a bushel.—National Magazine.

Not to Englishman's Liking.

Ridiculous was the duel General Israel Putnam arranged when challenged by an English officer. The general was to provide weapons. Arrived at the spot selected, the Englishman found "Old Put" serenely smoking by the side of an open powder keg, into which he had stuck a match. Requesting his antagonist to be seated on the other side of the keg, General Putnam lighted the match and smoked on unconcernedly. The Englishman for a moment watched the lucifer working its way downward, then beat a hurried retreat. The keg contained nothing but onions with a sprinkle of powder on top.

Books Ruthlessly Destroyed.

The Puritans destroyed many collections of books in the monasteries, and even Cromwell burned the Oxford library, then one of the finest in Europe. Extremists in revolution, as in religion, have been equally destructive as regards books. The Spanish inquisition and the French revolution were as one in this respect. The crusaders were destroyers of what they regarded as heretical books, and in Russia today the war of orthodoxy on sectarian dissent still manifests itself, among other things, in the ruthless destruction of the books of the nonconformists.

Despite this decline choice steers and medium to good cows are fully steady with a week ago, though medium to good steers and best butcher cattle are still 25c higher. Last Friday the National sold 868-pound heifers and steers at $8.85, the record at this or any other market.

Hog receipts, 11,000. Market 5c to 10c lower than Saturday, most sales showing the big end of the decline. Top hogs, $7.50, and the bulk of the good kinds sold at $7.25 to $7.40.

Auditorium Theater in Chicago Filled to Overflowing.

NO ORDINARY FACTIONAL FIGHT

Calls Attention to Taft's New Jersey Speech and Says Big Bosses Control National Committee.

Chicago, June 18.—Before a mass meeting that filled to overflowing the monster Auditorium Theatre, Colonel Roosevelt delivered one of his characteristic speeches, a synopsis of which follows:

"My Friends and Fellow Citizens: I address you as my fellow Republicans, but I also and primarily address you as fellow Americans, fellow citizens, for this has now become much more than an ordinary party fight—the issue is simpler and larger than that involved in the personality of any man here or than that involved in any factional or in any ordinary party contest. We are standing for the great fundamental rights upon which all successful free government must be based; we are standing for elementary decency in politics; we are fighting for honesty against naked robbery and where robbery is concerned the all important question is not the identity of the man robbed, but the crime itself. The action of the Taft leaders in the National Committee taken with the active aid of Mr. Taft's private secretary and of one of Mr. Taft's cabinet officers are monstrous and they should be indignantly condemned by the moral sentiment of the whole country. Tonight we come together to protest against a crime which strikes straight at the heart of every principle of political decency and honesty, the crime which represents treason to the people and the usurpation of the sovereignity of the people by irresponsible political bosses inspired by the sinister influences of moneyed privilege.

"Mr. Taft at first denied that he represented the bosses. His denial was of little consequence for his deeds belied his words. But I doubt if at the present he would venture to repeat the denial. As it has become constantly more and more evident that the people are against him, he has more and more undisguisedly thrown himself into the arms of the bosses. Here in Chicago at this moment he has never had one chance of success save what was given him by the actions of Messrs. Crane, Barnes, Brooker, Penrose, Murphy, Guggenheim, Mulvane, Smoot, New and their associates in cheating the people of their rights. He was beaten so overwhelmingly by the people themselves in the states where primaries were held that in the last state in which he spoke, in New Jersey, he permitted himself to be betrayed into the frank admission that he expected to be nominated because he believed the national committee would stand by him. One member of his own cabinet, representing a state that has just repudiated him, has been working hand in glove with the other Taft members of the national committee, under the lead of Mr. Crane of Massachusetts, Mr. Penrose of Pennsylvania, of Mr. Mulvane of Kansas, of Mr. Murphy of New Jersey, and Mr. Scott of West Virginia—all of whom have just been repudiated by their own states—to steal from the people the victory which the people have won.

"Our opponents here in Chicago today have waged such a bitter and unscrupulous fight for the occasion that this is no ordinary factional contest. The big bosses who control the national committee represent not merely the leading captains of mercenary politics but the great crooked financiers who stand behind these led captains. These political bosses are obnoxious in themselves, but they are even more obnoxious because they represent privilege in its most sordid and dangerous form. The majority of the national committee, in deciding the cases before them have practiced political theft in every form, from highway robbery to petty larceny; and political theft is as dishonest as, and much more dangerous than ordinary theft. There is no law to reach the offenses they have committed but morally these offenses are far more serious from the standpoint of the national interest than any of the ordinary commercial or political offenses which expose the perpetrators to be brought before the courts of justice. The committeemen responsible for such action need to be taught that the national comimttee was created to be the servant and not the master of the plain men and women who make up the bulk of the Republican party.

"When I undertook this contest, I was well aware of the intense bitterness which my re-entry into politics would cause. I knew that the powers that prey would oppose me with tenfold the bitterness they would show in opposing any other progressive candidate, simply because they do not fear any other progressive candidate, whereas they very greatly fear me. I knew also that they would directly or indirectly influence very many men who pride themselves upon belonging to, and indeed they tipify what they regard as the educated and respectable classes.

"The men who are most benefitted by privilege, unless they are exceptionally disinterested and far sighted, cannot be expected to feel friendly towards those who would assail privilege. But associated with them are many men whose selfish interest in the privilege is far less obvious. I regret that we have had with us so small a parentage that the men for whom life has been easy, who belong to or are intimately associated with the leisured and monied classes.

"Our cause is the cause of Justice for all in the interest of all. The present contest is but a phase of the larger struggle. Assuredly the fight will go on whether we win or lose, but it will be a sore disaster to lose. What happens to me is not of the slightest consequence; I am to be used, as in a doubtful battle any man is used, to his hurt or not, so long as he is useful, and is then cast aside or left to die. I wish you to feel this, and I shall need no sympathy when you are through with me, for this fight is far too great to permit us to concern ourselves about any one man's welfare. If we are true to ourselves by putting far above our own interests the triumph of the high cause for which we battle, we shall not lose. It would be far better to fail honorably for the cause we champion than it would be to win by foul methods, the foul victory for which our opponents hope. But the victory shall be ours, and it shall be won as we have already won so many victories, by clean and honest fight for the loftiest of causes. We fight in honorable fashion for the good of mankind; fearless of the future, unheeding of our individual fates, with unflinching hearts and undimmed eyes; we stand at Armageddon, and we battle for the Lord."

Negro Delegates in a Wreck.

Chicago, June 18.—Five negro delegates from Georgia were injured when a Pennsylvania train from the South pulling into the Pennsylvania yards collided with another train. None were killed.

MRS. W. E. BORAH

Mrs. Borah says she hasn't seen much of her husband since they arrived in Chicago, but she is much interested in the growing movement to make the senator temporary chairman of the convention.

PREPARING FOR THE STRUGGLE

GOVERNOR HADLEY HAS HARD JOB

Will Lead Effort to Seat 72 Roosevelt Delegates Barred by Majority of Committee—Dixon Depends on Taft Deserters.

Chicago, June 18.—Both sides are lining up their forces for the greatest struggle ever waged for the control of the Republican party.

The fight which Gov. Hadley of Missouri will lead on the floor of the convention from the tap of the gavel will be over fundamental principles. The Republican party has come to the point where the ways divide.

The details of the procedure are still subject to change. The situation is so unstable that unexpected changes may be called for on short notice.

In the matter of the temporary chairmanship, for instance, Gov. McGovern of Wisconsin has virtually been agreed upon as the representative of Roosevelt's forces. But at the last minute the name of Speaker Borah may be substituted if it should be concluded that he would poll more votes in the convention.

Prepared for Emergencies.

The leaders are prepared for any changes that may be necessary in an emergency, or in the development of the situation in the next 12 hours.

The convention will be called to order in the Coliseum at noon by Victor Rosewater of Omaha, chairman of the national committee. Then will come the prayer—the delegates feel is particularly appropriate at this time.

Then Chairman Rosewater will lay before the convention the report of the national committee submitting the temporary roll with the recommendation that Senator Root of New York act as temporary chairman.

Gov. Hadley, from the floor, where he will be seated in the Missouri delegation, will offer a substitute roll, and move its adoption by the convention. On that substitute roll, which was made up by Senator Borah of the national committee, will be the names of 72 Roosevelt delegates, whose right to sit in the convention was denied by the majority of the national committee. No contesting delegates, whose seats were awarded by a unanimous vote of the committee, will be on this list. The proposal is simply to include those holding seats with a clouded title.

Hadley to Explain.

Gov. Fort of New Jersey, who is to be assistant floor manager, will second this motion.

Gov. Hadley will then be entitled to the floor to explain his motion. That will give him the opportunity to lay before the convention, and to the larger Republican convention of the country, in plain language, the facts involved in the unseating of many delegates.

The progressives intend to use whatever time is allowed them to explain the situation in detail in every contest.

While the great question is whether the big interests or the people shall control, it is to be fought out on the specific line raised by the alleged fraudulent roll.

The calling of the roll, it is evident, may take two or three days unless drastic means are adopted by Chairman Rosewater to cut the protests short.

The Roosevelt managers have been assured by Senator Dixon, in general charge, that he is certain of enough breaks from Taft to give the progressives control of the convention.

Dixon is Confident.

He has been over the figures in detail with Col. Roosevelt and they both assert that with every allowance made, the Taft men will prove in a minority.

If Dixon's belief is correct, then the fight is over, for alleged fraudulently seated delegates will not be further recognized in the proceedings of the convention.

If he is mistaken, and the delegates already seated should hold the balance of power, then the struggle will reach a new stage.

That is the situation that the Republican party confronts; a situation that might lead to almost any developments. There is a possibility of a new progressive party coming out of it; a party that would appeal to all the progressive voters of the nation.

The progressive leaders do not admit this possibility, however, for they thoroughly believe that Roosevelt will control the convention and will get the nomination.

Commission Has New Secretary.

Topeka, June 18.—The Kansas public utilities commission has named Walter Grice secretary of the committee. He succeeds E. H. Hougeland, who was promoted to rate clerk, succeeding E. E. Smythe. The change became effective at once. Grice has been stenographer for John Marshall, attorney for the commission, for several years and has had much experience in the work of the department.

GOVERNOR STUBBS

Wherever Governor Stubbs of Kansas is, there is sure to be a group of lively men, most of whom are shouting for the colonel. There are those who see in Stubbs good presidential timber for the future.

PROPOSE TO SHUT HADLEY OFF

ROSEWATER MAY REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE MISSOURIAN.

Taft Leaders Say Chairman Lacks Authority to Permit Motion by Missouri's Governor.

Chicago, June 18.—Taft leaders were declaring that it will only take a few minutes to settle the fight over who will sit in the temporary organization. They figure that Chairman Rosewater can refuse to recognize Gov. Hadley to make a motion and can base his action on the chairman's alleged lack of authority.

Rosewater, in a conversation with newspaper representatives explained the position he expects to take. It is that the relation of the national chairman to the convention is the same as the relation of a secretary of state to a state legislature. Most of the states provide in their constitutions that the secretary of state shall call to order the lower house of the legislature. That is because he is custodian of the returns of the votes for candidates for the legislature throughout the state.

A secretary of state merely presides long enough to return to the legislature the returns of the several counties and districts and a list of the persons who on the face of the figures returned to him have received the largest number of votes. He makes no attempt to go into the merits of any contest. The practice is that the only motion entertained by a secretary of state acting in this capacity is to name a temporary chairman.

So it is contended that Rosewater cannot hear any motion except the motion to elect a temporary chairman and consequently he can avoid putting a motion to take up any other question. On that theory it is proposed to refuse Hadley a hearing and be polite about it by holding that it is a motion that cannot be considered by the national chairman.

ANY WORTHY MAN SUITS CLARK

No Fight on Temporary Chairmanship to be Made by Democratic Candidate.

Baltimore, June 18.—Adherents of Speaker Clark for the presidential nomination came out openly and made it known that they would make no fight on the temporary chairmanship and that any man worthy of the office would be agreeable to them. News of the Clark position was announced by Senator Stone of Missouri, leader of the Clark forces on the convention floor.

Stone said that while he believed that nine of ten Democrats were for the abrogation of the two-thirds rule for nomination he did not believe any action would be taken toward its abolition at this convention.

The high cost of living is to be one of the principal planks in the Democratic platform. National committeemen say this is an issue affecting every one alike and already the Consumers' league has urged that the party take definite action on the question in its platform.

Ready to Bolt.

Chicago, June 18.—Roosevelt delegates in an early morning caucus voted that it was the sense of the meeting that nothing less than 540 of the uncontested delegates could be regarded as a binding majority of the Republican convention. This was construed by the delegates present as meaning, as one of them put it, a "bolt at the go-off."

Congress is in Eclipse.

Washington, June 18.—Congress will be in almost a total eclipse for the next fortnight. The senate, perfunctorily meeting a few minutes every third day will transact no business. The house may do better.

NEWS OF SOCIETY AND WOMEN'S CLUBS

Leslie Dean read an interesting paper on "The Highest Form of Imitative Play," beginning with a story of a little boy who had been presented a hobby horse. He was taught to be kind to the horse and he lived in a happy world with his pet, taking long journeys and doing work in this very real world. But everything was changed for him in a single day. He watched some teamsters grading the streets near his home and saw them beat their horses and heard them cursing. He decided he had been using the wrong course with his horse, and concluded to adopt the ways, manners and speech of the graders, for, of course, they knew the best way, being men. His parents were shocked, of course, at the sudden change in him, and his correction was left to his mother. She took time to think out the best course to pursue. She did not scold him, for he did not know what he was doing or saying. He simply was trying to be a man. After talking with him and showing him the wrongness of his new course, he at once returned to his old way of playing and seemed to forget all about what he had heard and saw the day the men were grading. The argument of the paper was to show that children and young people do wrong through ignorance rather than from maliciousness, and they imitate some man or woman, as a rule, who, too, are ignorant of right principles of life.

MAN NOT CRAZY—ONLY DRUNK.

Man Found Near Elmo Monday Had Been On a Toot—Home in Trenton.

When Sheriff Tilson went to Elmo Tuesday morning to look after the man who had been reported to him by the Elmo authorities Monday, he expected to find the man in an insane condition, as the deputy had phoned him, but instead Mr. Tilson found a man just getting over the effects of a sure-enough drunk. The man told Mr. Tilson that he had become intoxicated in Omaha, and when he came to he found himself near the Hopper home, northwest of Elmo. His name is not Paine, as he gave it Monday when taken into custody by the authorities, but Ervin D. Atterbury, and his folks live at Trenton, Mo.

Atterbury told the sheriff that he had been spending most of his time in Council Bluffs lately, and Mr. Tilson purchased a ticket for the alleged lunatic and sent him to that place Tuesday.

HEADGEAR OF FRENCH WOMEN

All Kinds of Fantastic Ornaments Used to Cover Heads for Evening Wear.

A well known Paris painter gave a lecture a few days ago on the manner in which women covered their heads with all kinds of fantastic ornaments in the evening. He said that it was a pity when hair had so much expression in wave and color to conceal so much beauty beneath so-called fashionable accessories.

All the time this gentleman was expressing his views on this subject the audience was much amused at the presence of a beautiful actress famous for her exaggerated head dresses.

On this occasion she wore a cap of gold and white brocade with a high mass of white aigrettes extending around the front from ear to ear. From the center of her forehead stood a black aigrette almost tow feet high held by an enormous cabochon in cut jet. Whether this lady will henceforth follow the conferencier's suggestion remains to be seen. But it is said that we shall soon be wearing a rose and little else in the hair.—Gentlewoman.

Washington Woman Seeks Office.

The first woman in the state of Washington to aspire to a state office, Mrs. Josephine Corless Preston of this city, a native of Minnesota, is making a strong campaign for the Republican nomination for superintendent of public instruction.

Women have voted in Washington less than a year, but friends of Mrs. Preston, believing she has the qualifications of an excellent state official, have persuaded her to enter the race, and she has been causing the old line politicians endless worry.

Mrs. Preston is not a suffragette. She is quiet, unassuming and capable. For four years she has been superintendent of the schools of Walla Walla county and for two years before that was assistant in that office. She has been a teacher in the schools here for some years, an active worker in educational circles, and a recognized authority in the work.—Walla Walla Correspondence St. Paul Dispatch.

BOOKS AND THE BONEHEAD

Man Comes Forward With Convincing Argument That One Clerk Was a Maniac.

There are some who argue that many people who write books are crazy. W. W. Richardson of Washington now comes forward with the argument that at least one man who sells books is a maniac. Richardson went to a book store last Christmas and said to the young clerk:

"I want a copy of Poor Richard's Almanac done in brown leather."

"Almanacs?" echoed the clerk. "Yes, sir. Down in the paper-goods department with Christmas cards and calendars."

"Perhaps you can give me a copy of 'The Master of the Inn,' by Robert Herrick," Richardson made another suggestion.

"Never heard of that," confessed the clerk, "but I can give you something just as good. We've got 'The Master of Ballantrae.'"

Richardson sighed hopelessly and voiced his desire to get a child's book.

"We can fix you out there without any trouble," said the smiling clerk. "Here's 'The Dolly Dialogues,' by Anthony Hope."—Popular Magazine.

Professor Pollard, lecturing recently at University college, London, said he thought a woman's wedding ring "had a common origin with the ring put on the nose of a wild bull; it implied control, captivity, obedience." To which Filomena, writing in the Illustrated News, exclaims: "Such nonsense! The ring can never have implied anything of the sort; for, as a fact, it often used to be given in this country by the bride to the bridegroom, as well as vice versa, as it is still in Germany.

Tax on Wisdom.

Alderman James V. McMasters has a "David Harum" horse case to decide that will take the wisdom of a Solomon. He announced after hearing the evidence yesterday that he would need two days in order to study the merits of the case and that he would give his decision on Monday. The suit was brought by J. D. Page, a milk dealer of the north side, against the Riverside Horse and Mule Company to recover $162.50 which he paid in April, 1911, for a horse bought at the company's stables. Page says the horse died shortly after from pneumonia. The company's representative explained that the horse was sold on a commission basis and that as far as he knew the animal was not sick when sold to Page.

The hearing lasted for an hour and the "horsey talk" was too much for the alderman to decide the case offhand.

What They Did to Webster.

In the course of a speech on American heroes and institutions, Chauncey Depew stated that even the greatest Americans were almost entirely unknown abroad.

While in a distinguished gathering in England, he remarked, he commented on the fact that in Washington he lived in the very house where Daniel Webster had resided for six years while serving as secretary of state and later as a member of the senate.

A member of the English nobility replied:

"Ah, indeed, most interesting! Your Webster was a most extraordinary man. In England we have nothing to compare with your Webster, who, as I learn, was your greatest statesman and orator, wrote a dictionary and was hanged for killing a client."

Our Chief Capital.

William Muldoon, the health specialist, said in a recent interview in New York: "The health of the average American is far below what it was a generation ago. The trouble is that we Americans put dollars ahead of health, ahead of life, ahead of everything.

"They say that a European, landing for the first time in New York, once asked a native: 'What is the capital of this country, sir?'

"'I forget just how much the capital is,' the native replied; 'but anyhow, it's all in Pierpont Morgan's hands.'"

Bald Head Partings.

Before a man begins to get bald he parts his hair on the side way down just above his ear, but as the hair starts to come out then he begins to part it in the middle and later when about all of it is gone on top he again goes back to parting it down low to one side and lets the short hairs over the ears grow long and brushes these over his bald spot. From the little boy in curls to the old man with little or none left is a good enough theme for the immortal Shakespeare.

MORE TO GRADUATE

NOW COMES THE BUSINESS COLLEGE WITH THIRTY-ONE.

AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

June 27th is the Date Fixed for the Stenographers and Bookkeepers to Receive Diplomas.

On Thursday evening, June 27, the Business college will have its commencement exercises for the year. The class of 1912 is made up of thirty-one members and is the largest class ever graduated from the school. Franklin Pierce Jolly, "The Jolly Entertainer from Joliet," will deliver the class address on the subject of "How to Win the Battle of Life." Mr. Jolly has a national reputation, and no doubt will draw a large audience. The admission is to be free, and the exercises will be held at the Christian church, beginning at 8:15. An interesting program is being prepared, notice of which will appear in this paper. Aside from the regular graduation exercises the college will take a forward step, and will confer degrees upon a number of graduates in former years, who have worked as bookkeepers for twelve months or more.

GIANTS IN FIRST PLACE.

Standing of the Teams.

	Won.	Lost.	Pr.ct.
Giants	2	0	1.000
Rounders	1	1	.500
Athletics	1	1	.500
Pirates	0	2	.000

By virtue of their victory over the Pirates in the second game of Saturday's double-header the Giants are now occupying first place all to themselves in the Normal base ball league. The winners had things all their own way, as the 9 to 4 score will indicate. Prof. Moore pitched for the Giants and he fooled the opposing hitters all through the game. Snipes and McDougal were on the mound for the losers and both heavers were ineffective.

The first game of the afternoon was a real exhibition of the national game. The Rounders were victors over the Athletics in a well played game which took an extra inning to decide.

The count was 4 to 3. Wilson pitched for the winners and Simmons was the slab artist for the "Connie Macks."

The fans and fanettes are manifesting no little amount of interest in the league and the games are being well attended.

TO STOP A RAILROAD

Matrimonial Bonds Untangled in Circuit Court—Morris Mandamus Case Up Thursday.

Suit was filed Tuesday in Circuit Clerk Rathbun's office by B. R. Martin for Thomas Wright against the Wabash railroad to cancel a deed which was granted the Wabash railroad to the tract of land upon which the station now stands.

The deed was granted by Wright on December 2, 1879, and the articles of the document provided for the maintenance of a station agent and the usual conveniences for shippers. But the citizens of the village complain that the railroad company has not kept up its part of the agreement, thus causing the people of the community, particularly the shippers, great inconvenience.

As Bedison hasn't a sufficient population to come under the jurisdiction of the state railroad and warehouse commissioners, they take this as a means of bringing the railroad to time. Forfeiture of the right to run trains over the track is asked for in the petition.

The court decided against William A. Heller in his mandamus suit against the county court to compel them to grant him a license.

In the cases of the state of Missouri against John Merrill and E. C. Estes, left over from Monday on the parole docket, Merrill's parole was continued and the parole of Estes was continued in the first two cases and the other three charges against him were dismissed.

In the cases of George E. Allison vs. Margaret Adams, Grace M. Clymens vs. Abraham Adams, and Rosa M. Scott vs. Nellie E. Kelley a decree was given the plaintiff in each instance.

George Davidson was granted a divorce from Bessie J. Davidson, Georgia C. Beedle was granted a decree from Ralph T. Beedle and Pansie C. Proctor's matrimonial bonds to Harry E. Proctor were broken. Marshall W. Ecker dismissed his suit for divorce against Rosa Ecker.

In the afternoon session three more decrees of divorce were granted—Myrtle M. Duckworth from Charley M. Duckworth, Amy Alice Schepers from Bernard T. Schepers, and Ida Lewis from Robert F. Lewis. In the last named case the plaintiff gets $300 alimony.

The divorce case of John E. Courter against Dora H. Courter was continued to Saturday and $50 temporary alimony was granted. In the Sherman A. Munn vs. Helaina Munn divorce suit the evidence was heard and taken under advice.

Just before adjournment for dinner it was decided by the attorneys in the J. W. Morris mandamus case to bring the case up before the court on Tuesday.

They "Fished" at the Sphinx.

A crowd of girls of the Hum Drum club and their friends arranged for a fishing trip to the river Monday. But fishing wasn't the only thing in order for a lunch had been prepared, and when the rain put a stop to the first part of the program the party went to the Sphinx club rooms, where they got away with the eats.

The Custer-Wyckoff Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Custer, 210 South Mulberry street, when their daughter, Miss Georgia, was united in marriage to Mr. Carl E. Wyckoff of Kansas City, the Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church officiating. The double ring ceremony was used. Before the ceremony Miss Eva Duncan sang "All I Ask is Love." As Miss Duncan played the wedding march the bride and groom took their places beneath an arch shaped in smilax, white carnations and pink and white sweet peas and banked with palms and ferns. After the ceremony and congratulations had been extended a three-course luncheon was served. The color scheme in the dining room was white and pink. The large table, where the bridal party was seated, had a large centerpiece of white carnations, pink roses and smilax. Pink and white ribbons extended from the chandelier to the four corners of the table, which was lighted by white candles with pink silk shades. On the small tables, where the guests were seated, were crystal baskets tied with pink and white tulle and filled with pink and white sweet peas. The bride's gown was of baby Irish lace and embroidery, while her long tulle veil was held in place by clusters of orange blossoms. The out-of-town guests were Miss Blanche Wyckoff of Enid, Okla., sister of the groom; Mr. Leo Custer and his bride of Pittsburg, Okla., a brother of the bride, who was married Saturday, June 8; Miss Helen Ward of Perry, Ia., a cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wiley of Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. James Goff of Arkoe. The Maryville guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arch Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gaugh, Miss Carrie Hopkins, Miss Mayme Dooley, Miss Bertha Ritze, Miss Anna Dooley, Miss Eva Duncan and little Miss Cleo Bess Thornton, who attended the door. The bride has grown from childhood to womanhood in Maryville, and has been socially popular with young and old. She taught in the Maryville schools before going to Enid, Okla., where she has taught three years. Her husband is an express messenger on the Fire Fly on the Rock Island road between Kansas City and Dallas, Tex. They leave Maryville with the kindest wishes of the bride's many friends to their new home in Kansas City.

The Mothers' Circle Friday.

"Is Scolding a Necessity?" was one of the things talked about at the meeting of the Mothers' Circle Friday afternoon during the round table talk. And the mothers talked of "How to Make Sunday Interesting and Profitable for Children," among the other things that are most perplexing to them and all other mothers. Mrs.

FOR THE MILL TAX

DR. TAYLOR URGES IMPORTANCE OF AMENDMENT TO ALL.

DO AWAY WITH LOBBYING

Editor Democrat-Forum: I desire to place before our people of Northwest Missouri a measure that deserves the support of every good and progressive citizen. It is the mill tax educational amendment, which is as follows:

Proposed amendment to the constitution of Missouri—To be submitted to the legal voters of the state of Missouri for their approval or rejection at the regular general election to be held on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1912, providing for revenue for the support of public education, by adding to article X of the constitution one new section to be known as section twenty-eight (28), which is in words and figures as follows:

Section 28. A state tax of ten cents on each one hundred dollars valuation shall be annually levied and collected on the assessed value of all property subject by law to taxation in this state. The proceeds of said tax shall be set apart in the state treasury and appropriated by the general assembly for the support and maintenance of public elementary and high schools, state normal schools, Lincoln institute, and the state university; but in no case shall there be appropriated less than twenty-five per cent of said proceeds to be used in aiding public elementary and high schools.

Let me call attention to the fact that at present we have no fixed maintenance for the support of our state educational institutions. At each bi-

Clairvoyant Bernay Is Now Here

Prof. Bernay is the Clairvoyant who located J. W. Graham of St. Joseph, a young man, who had been missing two years. Mrs. Graham, the mother, consulted Mr. Bernay, who while in a clairvoyant condition stated that the man was an enlisted sailor on the Battleship Kearsarge and that he would be found there. Telegraphic inquiry confirmed the prediction.

Mr. Julius Daniel of Joplin is now a wealthy mine owner, but 2 years ago was working in a mine at $3.00 a day in that city. By mere accident he met Mr. Bernay, who pointed out an opportunity to him. Mr. Daniel acted upon the advice with the result that, as he writes in a letter of thanks to Mr. Bernay, "It started me on the road to success and in ten months was worth $18,000.00 to me."

Miss F. D. of St. Joseph consulted with Bernay after circumstances had broken up a dear friendsip between her and a prominent young professional man. In two weeks time through the clairvoyant's advice and help the trouble was settled and the friendship renewed with marriage as a near result.

John Emerson, a prosperous farmer living near Springfield, had buried his money in his backyard, having no faith in banks. He died on April 21, 1910, suddenly without having time to tell the family about this. When no money was found, a son consulted with Mr. Bernay and this resulted in the recovery of $4,200.00 and valuable papers.

Without asking a single question of his caller, Bernay reveals every important event in his client's life even to the meaning of them in full, showing them how to attain the success they desire in business, investments, speculation, love, courtship, marriage, divorce, lost or absent friends, lawsuits, fortunes, money affairs, health, wills, deeds or anything they may be in doubt about and all be assured of the proper advice and help.

Mr. Bernay may be consulted daily (except Sunday) from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Consultations $1.00 and $2.00 Everything strictly confidential.

ennial session of the legislature it is necessary for the representatives of those institutions to go to Jefferson City and institute a lobby to secure the means for the support of the university, the normal schools and the Lincoln institute. Every state that is in the lead among educational lines provides for the fixed maintenance of those institutions. It is not right nor is it helpful to our educational interests to reduce them to the need of seeking their support by means of a semi-political barter at each session of the legislature.

I believe that the people of Northwest Missouri will register themselves largely on the side of progress and vote for this measure. Let me indicate some of its advantages.

First—Assured support of our educational institutions without the need of a humiliating legislatiure lobby.

Second—A fixed amount for public schools that can be used to establish high schools where needed, to strengthen weak high schools, to make a good consolidated rural school wherever feasible, and to provide free tuition in a good high school for every pupil completing the course of study in the country schools.

Third—It will make available from the present general revenue over $1,000,000 that can be used to make good roads, establish farmers' institutes, rural community life centers, and support our eleemosynary institutions.

Fourth—It will raise Missouri from the humiliating position of being thirtieth in the educational rank of the Union while in resources and wealth she is among the first.

The amendment must be pushed. Petitions are being circulated and every voter is urged to sign his name. The signatures of five per cent of the voters in each congressional district must be secured, but let us do honor to Northwest Missouri by sending in a much larger number that shall declare in emphatic tones the spirit of educational progress of this great section of the state. Petitions may be found at the Tribune and Democrat-Forum offices. Some money is needed to carry on the campaign of securing signatures and placing the matter before the people. Help in this direction will be most acceptable. If you want a part in this great forward step in educational progress and are willing to help bear the expense, will you not kindly report the amount that you will pay to Superintendent W. M. Oakerson or myself?

Trusting that every friend of better education and state development will exert himself in behalf of this significant movement, I am,

Very truly,
H. K. TAYLOR.

Little Boy is Better.

Mrs. Mary Renfro returned to her home in Hopkins Monday. She came Saturday to be with her little boy, Ronald, who has been at St. Francis hospital the past ten days receiving treatment to remove the ill effects of a burn he received to his left hand a year ago. Skin was grafted over the back of his hand Saturday morning by Dr. Charles T. Bell. The little boy is getting along nicely. He will remain several days in the care of Dr. Bell at the home of Mrs. W. V. Smith, on East Fourth street, his sister, Miss Elma, being with him.

Will Move to Creston.

C. C. Young, the contractor, will move his family to Creston about the 15th of July. Mr. Young has been in Creston nearly a year, where he has been busily engaged in work, and has only been with his family on Sundays. He is now building the new school house at Lenox and has much other work up in that country to oversee which would keep him away from Maryville all the time.

Miss Harriet Hamilton of Auburn, N. Y., who has been a guest a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Craig, left for her home Monday. Miss Hamilton spent the winter in California and had traveled all through the west on her way to Tarkio, where she visited her cousin, Dr. Curtis Coe, and family, who is Mr. and Mrs. Craig's son-in-law.

Warren L. Jones and family are spending several days in the Quitman country with old friends and relatives, fishing, picnicking and having a good time.

Mrs. George Kivett and son, of Hopkins were in Maryville Monday.

LOW TONES ARE A SEDATIVE

Pitch the Voice Deep When Under Nervous Tension and Self-Control Is Gained.

An excellent sedative for nervous excitement is found in using the voice at its lowest comfortable key. Immediate relief from stuttering is often obtained by dropping the voice from a high pitch to a lower tone. Teachers whose pupils become restless and unruly as they themselves grow tired and nervous will find that a low-pitched, quiet tone will relieve their own nervous tension, and prove wonderfully quieting to their pupils.

This simple expedient is also useful when you are trying to control or prevent weeping. There are times when a person fears to talk lest he break down and cry, yet must answer a question or carry on a conversation. Again, the deep lower tones of the voice, joined to slow, deep breathing, come to the rescue, and self-control is gained.

In any situation where one must struggle for self-possession, the low-pitched voice, with its impression of poise and self-confidence, is a wonderful aid. Even under ordinary circumstances the lower register of the speaking voice is richer and more musical. —Youth's Companion.

CURIOS FOR THE CHILDREN

Among the dim old rooms of the Smithsonian Institution, in Washington, is one very bright and cheery apartment, over the archway of which are the words "Children's Room." Here there are arranged all sorts of natural objects in which boys and girls are interested, such curious things as mineral wool, flexible sandstone, landscape marbles, a model of the Great Mogul, the largest diamond ever cut, and another of the largest lump of gold ever found.

In another case are the strange glove and finger sponges and the Venus flower basket, and over a case of beautiful shells is one of iridescent and brightly hued butterflies.

How creatures hide is illustrated by "walking leaves," the night hawk, crown creepers, "walking stick" and other queer creatures that are scarce to be detected because of their clever adherence to leaves, twigs and other objects of similar coloring.

Canny Grocer.

The canny grocer sized up his customer:

She had ordered six strictly fresh eggs.

He took down the paper bag and, going to the basket, picked them out.

Twisting the top of the bag together he handed it to the woman, who paid him and went away.

The canny grocer smiled. He had given the woman seven eggs when she ordered but six.

He knew that when she reached home and found that she had seven instead of six eggs she would be so delighted with the supposition that she had overreached him that she would entirely disregard the fact that six of the eggs were storage and one was dubious!

For the grocer understood human nature. And he was canny.—Plain Dealer.

Tenth Century Horses.

Money values in the tenth century were very low, according to our ideas, but as the purchasing power of money then equaled from eight to twenty times what it is today, one must not hasten a comparison. In Athelstane's time a horse was worth 120 shillings, an ox 30 pence, a cow 20 pence, a sheep 5 pence, a hog 8 pence, a slave 20 shillings, making a slave worth eight oxen, and these prices, except in times of famine, appear to have changed little under the Norman. In 1156 wheat sold at 18 pence the quarter of eight bushels, and in 1243 it brought only 24 pence, but in 1024 seed wheat sold at 3 shillings a bushel, barley at 2 shillings and oats at 1 shilling a bushel.—National Magazine.

Not to Englishman's Liking.

Ridiculous was the duel General Israel Putnam arranged when challenged by an English officer. The general was to provide weapons. Arrived at the spot selected, the Englishman found "Old Put" serenely smoking by the side of an open powder keg, into which he had stuck a match. Requesting his antagonist to be seated on the other side of the keg, General Putnam lighted the match and smoked on unconcernedly. The Englishman for a moment watched the lucifer working its way downward, then beat a hurried retreat. The keg contained nothing but onions with a sprinkle of powder on top.

Books Ruthlessly Destroyed.

The Puritans destroyed many collections of books in the monasteries, and even Cromwell burned the Oxford library, then one of the finest in Europe. Extremists in revolution, as in religion, have been equally destructive as regards books. The Spanish inquisition and the French revolution were as one in this respect. The crusaders were destroyers of what they regarded as heretical books, and in Russia today the war of orthodoxy on sectarian dissent still manifests itself, among other things, in the ruthless destruction of the books of the nonconformists.

Auditorium Theater in Chicago Filled to Overflowing.

NO ORDINARY FACTIONAL FIGHT

Calls Attention to Taft's New Jersey Speech and Says Big Bosses Control National Committee.

"My Friends and Fellow Citizens: I address you as my fellow Republicans, but I also and primarily address you as fellow Americans, fellow citizens, for this has now become much more than an ordinary party fight—the issue is simpler and larger than that involved in the personality of any man here or than that involved in any factional or in any ordinary party contest. We are standing for the great fundamental rights upon which all successful free government must be based; we are standing for elementary decency in politics; we are fighting for honesty against naked robbery and where robbery is concerned the all important question is not the identity of the man robbed, but the crime itself. The action of the Taft leaders in the National Committee taken with the active aid of Mr. Taft's private secretary and of one of Mr. Taft's cabinet officers are monstrous and they should be indignantly condemned by the moral sentiment of the whole country. Tonight we come together to protest against a crime which strikes straight at the heart of every principle of political decency and honesty, the crime which represents treason to the people and the usurpation of the sovereignity of the people by irresponsible political bosses inspired by the sinister influences of moneyed privilege.

"Mr. Taft at first denied that he represented the bosses. His denial was of little consequence for his deeds belied his words. But I doubt if at the present he would venture to repeat the denial. As it has become constantly more and more evident that the people are against him, he has more and more undisguisedly thrown himself into the arms of the bosses. Here in Chicago at this moment he has never had one chance of success save what was given him by the actions of Messrs. Crane, Barnes, Brooker, Penrose, Murphy, Guggenheim, Mulvane, Smoot, New and their associates in cheating the people of their rights. He was beaten so overwhelmingly by the people themselves in the states where primaries were held that in the last state in which he spoke, in New Jersey, he permitted himself to be betrayed into the frank admission that he expected to be nominated because he believed the national committee would stand by him. One member of his own cabinet, representing a state that has just repudiated him, has been working hand in glove with the other Taft members of the national committee, under the lead of Mr. Crane of Massachusetts, Mr. Penrose of Pennsylvania, of Mr. Mulvane of Kansas, of Mr. Murphy of New Jersey, and Mr. Scott of West Virginia—all of whom have just been repudiated by their own states—to steal from the people the victory which the people have won.

"Our opponents here in Chicago today have waged such a bitter and unscrupulous fight for the occasion that this is no ordinary factional contest. The big bosses who control the national committee represent not merely the leading captains of mercenary politics but the great crooked financiers who stand behind these led captains. These political bosses are obnoxious in themselves, but they are even more obnoxious because they represent privilege in its most sordid and dangerous form. The majority of the national committee, in deciding the cases before them have practiced political theft in every form, from highway robbery to petty larceny; and political theft is as dishonest as, and much more dangerous than ordinary theft. There is no law to reach the offenses they have committed but morally these offenses are far more serious from the standpoint of the national interest than any of the ordinary commercial or political offenses which expose the perpetrators to be brought before the courts of justice. The committeemen responsible for such action need to be taught that the national comimttee was created to be the servant and not the master of the plain men and women who make up the bulk of the Republican party.

"When I undertook this contest, I was well aware of the intense bitterness which my re-entry into politics would cause. I knew that the powers that prey would oppose me with tenfold the bitterness they would show in opposing any other progressive candidate, simply because they do not fear any other progressive candidate, whereas they very greatly fear me. I knew also that they would directly or indirectly influence very many men who pride themselves upon belonging to, and indeed they tipify what they regard as the educated and respectable classes.

"The men who are most benefitted by privilege, unless they are exceptionally disinterested and far sighted, cannot be expected to feel friendly towards those who would assail privilege. But associated with them are many men whose selfish interest in the privilege is far less obvious. I regret that we have had with us so small a parentage that the men for whom life has been easy, who belong to or are intimately associated with the leisured and monied classes.

"Our cause is the cause of Justice for all in the interest of all. The present contest is but a phase of the larger struggle. Assuredly the fight will go on whether we win or lose, but it will be a sore disaster to lose. What happens to me is not of the slightest consequence; I am to be used, as in a doubtful battle any man is used, to his hurt or not, so long as he is useful, and is then cast aside or left to die. I wish you to feel this, and I shall need no sympathy when you are through with me, for this fight is far too great to permit us to concern ourselves about any one man's welfare. If we are true to ourselves by putting far above our own interests the triumph of the high cause for which we battle, we shall not lose. It would be far better to fail honorably for the cause we champion than it would be to win by foul methods, the foul victory for which our opponents hope. But the victory shall be ours, and it shall be won as we have already won so many victories, by clean and honest fight for the loftiest of causes. We fight in honorable fashion for the good of mankind; fearless of the future, unheeding of our individual fates, with unflinching hearts and undimmed eyes; we stand at Armageddon, and we battle for the Lord."

One delegate from Massachusetts elected as a Roosevelt delegate. Roosevelt wants him to vote for Taft. One delegate from Mississippi instructed for both Taft and Roosevelt. Two Pennsylvania delegates said to be for Robert T. Lincoln.

Negro Delegates in a Wreck.

Chicago, June 18.—Five negro delegates from Georgia were injured when a Pennsylvania train from the South pulling into the Pennsylvania yards collided with another train. None were killed.

MRS. W. E. BORAH

Mrs. Borah says she hasn't seen much of her husband since they arrived in Chicago, but she is much interested in the growing movement to make the senator temporary chairman of the convention.

PREPARING FOR THE STRUGGLE

GOVERNOR HADLEY HAS HARD JOB

Will Lead Effort to Seat 72 Roosevelt Delegates Barred by Majority of Committee—Dixon Depends on Taft Deserters.

Chicago, June 18.—Both sides are lining up their forces for the greatest struggle ever waged for the control of the Republican party.

The fight which Gov. Hadley of Missouri will lead on the floor of the convention from the tap of the gavel will be over fundamental principles. The Republican party has come to the point where the ways divide.

The details of the procedure are still subject to change. The situation is so unstable that unexpected changes may be called for on short notice.

In the matter of the temporary chairmanship, for instance, Gov. McGovern of Wisconsin has virtually been agreed upon as the representative of Roosevelt's forces. But at the last minute the name of Speaker Borah may be substituted if it should be concluded that he would poll more votes in the convention.

Prepared for Emergencies.

The leaders are prepared for any changes that may be necessary in an emergency, or in the development of the situation in the next 12 hours.

The convention will be called to order in the Coliseum at noon by Victor Rosewater of Omaha, chairman of the national committee. Then will come the prayer—the delegates feel is particularly appropriate at this time.

Then Chairman Rosewater will lay before the convention the report of the national committee submitting the temporary roll with the recommendation that Senator Root of New York act as temporary chairman.

Gov. Hadley, from the floor, where he will be seated in the Missouri delegation, will offer a substitute roll, and move its adoption by the convention. On that substitute roll, which was made up by Senator Borah of the national committee, will be the names of 72 Roosevelt delegates, whose right to sit in the convention was denied by the majority of the national committee. No contesting delegates, whose seats were awarded by a unanimous vote of the committee, will be on this list. The proposal is simply to include those holding seats with a clouded title.

Hadley to Explain.

Gov. Fort of New Jersey, who is to be assistant floor manager, will second this motion.

Gov. Hadley will then be entitled to the floor to explain his motion. That will give him the opportunity to lay before the convention, and to the larger Republican convention of the country, in plain language, the facts involved in the unseating of many delegates.

The progressives intend to use whatever time is allowed them to explain the situation in detail in every contest.

While the great question is whether the big interests or the people shall control, it is to be fought out on the specific line raised by the alleged fraudulent roll.

The calling of the roll, it is evident, may take two or three days unless drastic means are adopted by Chairman Rosewater to cut the protests short.

The Roosevelt managers have been assured by Senator Dixon, in general charge, that he is certain of enough breaks from Taft to give the progressives control of the convention.

Dixon is Confident.

He has been over the figures in detail with Col. Roosevelt and they both assert that with every allowance made, the Taft men will prove in a minority.

If Dixon's belief is correct, then the fight is over, for alleged fraudulently seated delegates will not be further recognized in the proceedings of the convention.

If he is mistaken, and the delegates already seated should hold the balance of power, then the struggle will reach a new stage.

That is the situation that the Republican party confronts; a situation that might lead to almost any developments. There is a possibility of a new progressive party coming out of it; a party that would appeal to all the progressive voters of the nation.

The progressive leaders do not admit this possibility, however, for they thoroughly believe that Roosevelt will control the convention and will get the nomination.

Commission Has New Secretary.

Topeka, June 18.—The Kansas public utilities commission has named Walter Grice secretary of the committee. He succeeds E. H. Hougeland, who was promoted to rate clerk, succeeding E. E. Smythe. The change became effective at once. Grice has been stenographer for John Marshall, attorney for the commission, for several years and has had much experience in the work of the department.

GOVERNOR STUBBS

Wherever Governor Stubbs of Kansas is, there is sure to be a group of lively men, most of whom are shouting for the colonel. There are those who see in Stubbs good presidential timber for the future.

PROPOSE TO SHUT HADLEY OFF

ROSEWATER MAY REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE MISSOURIAN.

Taft Leaders Say Chairman Lacks Authority to Permit Motion by Missouri's Governor.

Chicago, June 18.—Taft leaders were declaring that it will only take a few minutes to settle the fight over who will sit in the temporary organization. They figure that Chairman Rosewater can refuse to recognize Gov. Hadley to make a motion and can base his action on the chairman's alleged lack of authority.

Rosewater, in a conversation with newspaper representatives explained the position he expects to take. It is that the relation of the national chairman to the convention is the same as the relation of a secretary of state to a state legislature. Most of the states provide in their constitutions that the secretary of state shall call to order the lower house of the legislature. That is because he is custodian of the returns of the votes for candidates for the legislature throughout the state.

A secretary of state merely presides long enough to return to the legislature the returns of the several counties and districts and a list of the persons who on the face of the figures returned to him have received the largest number of votes. He makes no attempt to go into the merits of any contest. The practice is that the only motion entertained by a secretary of state acting in this capacity is to name a temporary chairman.

So it is contended that Rosewater cannot hear any motion except the motion to elect a temporary chairman and consequently he can avoid putting a motion to take up any other question. On that theory it is proposed to refuse Hadley a hearing and be polite about it by holding that it is a motion that cannot be considered by the national chairman.

ANY WORTHY MAN SUITS CLARK

No Fight on Temporary Chairmanship to be Made by Democratic Candidate.

Baltimore, June 18.—Adherents of Speaker Clark for the presidential nomination came out openly and made it known that they would make no fight on the temporary chairmanship and that any man worthy of the office would be agreeable to them. News of the Clark position was announced by Senator Stone of Missouri, leader of the Clark forces on the convention floor.

Stone said that while he believed that nine of ten Democrats were for the abrogation of the two-thirds rule for nomination he did not believe any action would be taken toward its abolition at this convention.

The high cost of living is to be one of the principal planks in the Democratic platform. National committeemen say this is an issue affecting every one alike and already the Consumers' league has urged that the party take definite action on the question in its platform.

Ready to Bolt.

Chicago, June 18.—Roosevelt delegates in an early morning caucus voted that it was the sense of the meeting that nothing less than 540 of the uncontested delegates could be regarded as a binding majority of the Republican convention. This was construed by the delegates present as meaning, as one of them put it, a "bolt at the go-off."

Congress is in Eclipse.

Washington, June 18.—Congress will be in almost a total eclipse for the next fortnight. The senate, perfunctorily meeting a few minutes every third day will transact no business. The house may do better.

Leslie Dean read an interesting paper on "The Highest Form of Imitative Play," beginning with a story of a little boy who had been presented a hobby horse. He was taught to be kind to the horse and he lived in a happy world with his pet, taking long journeys and doing work in this very real world. But everything was changed for him in a single day. He watched some teamsters grading the streets near his home and saw them beat their horses and heard them cursing. He decided he had been using the wrong course with his horse, and concluded to adopt the ways, manners and speech of the graders, for, of course, they knew the best way, being men. His parents were shocked, of course, at the sudden change in him, and his correction was left to his mother. She took time to think out the best course to pursue. She did not scold him, for he did not know what he was doing or saying. He simply was trying to be a man. After talking with him and showing him the wrongness of his new course, he at once returned to his old way of playing and seemed to forget all about what he had heard and saw the day the men were grading. The argument of the paper was to show that children and young people do wrong through ignorance rather than from maliciousness, and they imitate some man or woman, as a rule, who, too, are ignorant of right principles of life.

When Sheriff Tilson went to Elmo Tuesday morning to look after the man who had been reported to him by the Elmo authorities Monday, he expected to find the man in an insane condition, as the deputy had phoned him, but instead Mr. Tilson found a man just getting over the effects of a sure-enough drunk. The man told Mr. Tilson that he had become intoxicated in Omaha, and when he came to he found himself near the Hopper home, northwest of Elmo. His name is not Paine, as he gave it Monday when taken into custody by the authorities, but Ervin D. Atterbury, and his folks live at Trenton, Mo.

HEADGEAR OF FRENCH WOMEN

A well known Paris painter gave a lecture a few days ago on the manner in which women covered their heads with all kinds of fantastic ornaments in the evening. He said that it was a pity when hair had so much expression in wave and color to conceal so much beauty beneath so-called fashionable accessories.

All the time this gentleman was expressing his views on this subject the audience was much amused at the presence of a beautiful actress famous for her exaggerated head dresses.

On this occasion she wore a cap of gold and white brocade with a high mass of white aigrettes extending around the front from ear to ear. From the center of her forehead stood a black aigrette almost tow feet high held by an enormous cabochon in cut jet. Whether this lady will henceforth follow the conferencier's suggestion remains to be seen. But it is said that we shall soon be wearing a rose and little else in the hair.—Gentlewoman.

Washington Woman Seeks Office.

The first woman in the state of Washington to aspire to a state office, Mrs. Josephine Corless Preston of this city, a native of Minnesota, is making a strong campaign for the Republican nomination for superintendent of public instruction.

Women have voted in Washington less than a year, but friends of Mrs. Preston, believing she has the qualifications of an excellent state official, have persuaded her to enter the race, and she has been causing the old line politicians endless worry.

Mrs. Preston is not a suffragette. She is quiet, unassuming and capable. For four years she has been superintendent of the schools of Walla Walla county and for two years before that was assistant in that office. She has been a teacher in the schools here for some years, an active worker in educational circles, and a recognized authority in the work.—Walla Walla Correspondence St. Paul Dispatch.

BOOKS AND THE BONEHEAD

Man Comes Forward With Convincing Argument That One Clerk Was a Maniac.

There are some who argue that many people who write books are crazy. W. W. Richardson of Washington now comes forward with the argument that at least one man who sells books is a maniac. Richardson went to a book store last Christmas and said to the young clerk:

"I want a copy of Poor Richard's Almanac done in brown leather."

"Almanacs?" echoed the clerk. "Yes, sir. Down in the paper-goods department with Christmas cards and calendars."

"Perhaps you can give me a copy of 'The Master of the Inn,' by Robert Herrick," Richardson made another suggestion.

"Never heard of that," confessed the clerk, "but I can give you something just as good. We've got 'The Master of Ballantrae.'"

Richardson sighed hopelessly and voiced his desire to get a child's book.

"We can fix you out there without any trouble," said the smiling clerk. "Here's 'The Dolly Dialogues,' by Anthony Hope."—Popular Magazine.

Professor Polliard, lecturing recently at University college, London, said he thought a woman's wedding ring "had a common origin with the ring put on the nose of a wild bull; it implied control, captivity, obedience." To which Filomena, writing in the Illustrated News, exclaims: "Such nonsense! The ring can never have implied anything of the sort; for, as a fact, it often used to be given in this country by the bride to the bridegroom, as well as vice versa, as it is still in Germany.

The real reason the wedding ring is worn on the left hand is that this is less actively employed than the right, and therefore a ring on that hand is less exposed to injury. In the ancient Sarum ritual of England the ring was placed upon the bride's right hand. It is a relic of the custom, which dates back to the darkness of antiquity, of the bridegroom giving the bride ornaments of gold and silver, as Isaac did when he wedded Sarah.

Tax on Wisdom.

Alderman James V. McMasters has a "David Harum" horse case to decide that will take the wisdom of a Solomon. He announced after hearing the evidence yesterday that he would need two days in order to study the merits of the case and that he would give his decision on Monday. The suit was brought by J. D. Page, a milk dealer of the north side, against the Riverside Horse and Mule Company to recover $162.50 which he paid in April, 1911, for a horse bought at the company's stables. Page says the horse died shortly after from pneumonia. The company's representative explained that the horse was sold on a commission basis and that as far as he knew the animal was not sick when sold to Page.

The hearing lasted for an hour and the "horsey talk" was too much for the alderman to decide the case offhand.

What They Did to Webster.

In the course of a speech on American heroes and institutions, Chauncey Depew stated that even the greatest Americans were almost entirely unknown abroad.

While in a distinguished gathering in England, he remarked, he commented on the fact that in Washington he lived in the very house where Daniel Webster had resided for six years while serving as secretary of state and later as a member of the senate.

A member of the English nobility replied:

"Ah, indeed, most interesting! Your Webster was a most extraordinary man. In England we have nothing to compare with your Webster, who, as I learn, was your greatest statesman and orator, wrote a dictionary and was hanged for killing a client."

Our Chief Capital.

William Muldoon, the health specialist, said in a recent interview in New York: "The health of the average American is far below what it was a generation ago. The trouble is that we Americans put dollars ahead of health, ahead of life, ahead of everything.

"They say that a European, landing for the first time in New York, once asked a native: 'What is the capital of this country, sir?'

"'I forget just how much the capital is,' the native replied; 'but anyhow, it's all in Pierpont Morgan's hands.'"

Bald Head Partings.

Before a man begins to get bald he parts his hair on the side way down just above his ear, but as the hair starts to come out then he begins to part it in the middle and later when about all of it is gone on top he again goes back to parting it down low to one side and lets the short hairs over the ears grow long and brushes these over his bald spot. From the little boy in curls to the old man with little or none left is a good enough theme for the immortal Shakespeare.
